THERE WILL BE A HEARING ON THIS MOTION ON MAY 1, 2024, AT 11:00 A.M. (PREVAILING CENTRAL TIME) IN COURTROOM 403, U.S. BANKRPTCY COURT, 515 RUSK, HOUSTON, TX 77002.

Christopher R. Murray, the chapter 11 trustee (the “Trustee”) appointed in the above-referenced case respectfully represents as follows in support of the motion (the “Motion”).

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Subject to Court approval, the Trustee has accepted a stalking horse bid for the Debtor's real property, and by this Motion, the Trustee seeks authority to implement, among other things, a process to solicit bids that might create a competitive auction for the property that results in an ultimate sales price that exceeds in value the initial stalking horse bid and matches the certainty of closing represented by the stalking horse bid.

2. Although the Debtor's secured lender is the stalking horse bidder and intends to propose a plan of liquidation in conjunction with such sale, the Trustee will manage the sale process and decide the prevailing or winning bid without any input from the Debtor's secured lender as long as the lender is bidding for the property. The Trustee believes that a prompt sale of the property is necessary because the estate otherwise lacks the resources to pay brokers to lease the property up and increase its value. In short, a sale of the property is in the best interests of the estate and its creditors.

RELIEF REQUESTED

3. The Trustee seeks entry of an order in the form attached as Exhibit A (the "Bid Procedures Order") (i) approving the proposed bid procedures attached as Exhibit 1 to the Bid Procedures Order (the "Bid Procedures"); (ii) establishing certain dates and deadlines for the sale process, including scheduling an auction (the "Auction"), if needed; (iii) approving and authorizing entry into an asset purchase agreement (the "Stalking Horse Agreement") attached as Exhibit 2 to the Bid Procedures Order, subject to higher and better offers; (iv) approving procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases attached as Exhibit 3 to the Bid Procedures Order ("Assumption & Assignment Procedures"); (v) approving form and manner of notice of the Auction attached as Exhibit 4 to the Bid Procedures Order (the “Sale Notice”); and (vi) granting related relief.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(2) and 1334. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), and the Court has authority to enter a final order granting the relief requested. The bases for the relief requested are sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rules 2002, 6004, and 6006 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (“Bankruptcy Rule(s)”) and the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (“Local Rule(s)”).

BACKGROUND

5. On December 5, 2023, Galleria 2425 Owner, LLC (the “Debtor”) filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On January 31, 2024, the Court entered an order directing the appointment of a chapter 11 trustee to manage the estate. [ECF No. 99]. On February 9, 2024, the Court entered an order appointing Trustee. [ECF Nos. 116].

6. As of the date of hereof, no examiner or official committee of unsecured creditors has been appointed in this case.

7. The Trustee has executed the Stalking Horse Agreement with the National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P., New York Branch (“NBK” or the “Stalking Horse Bidder”), for the sale of certain property located at 2425 West Loop South, Houston, Texas 77027 (the “Property”) under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. Pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement, and subject to higher and better offers through a competitive auction process in which NBK can participate, NBK has agreed to purchase the Property in exchange for a portion of the amount it is owed (a “credit bid”), subject to outstanding claims secured by ad valorem tax liens which will be paid under the chapter 11 plan of liquidation that NBK intends to propose. The Trustee anticipates that the Stalking Horse Agreement will generate competitive bidding for the sale of the Property.

9. The Trustee intends to retain a commercial real estate broker (the “Broker”) to market the Property for approximately 2 months for sale to potential third-party purchasers. After the Broker completes the preparation of marketing documents and receives approval from the Trustee, the Broker will contact potential purchasers in the real estate market. All prospective purchasers will receive an executive summary regarding the Property and a confidentiality agreement. Those parties that execute a confidentiality agreement will receive a more detailed descriptive memorandum, access to an online data room containing additional information about the Property, and the opportunity to inspect the Property.

BID PROCEDURES AND SALE NOTICE

10. The Trustee has designed the Bid Procedures to establish an open process for the solicitation, receipt, and evaluation of bids for the Sale of the Property utilizing the following proposed timeline:

Event	Description	Deadline
Bid Deadline	The deadline by which all binding Bids must be actually received pursuant to the Bidding Procedures.	5:00 p.m. prevailing Central Time on June 14, 2024.
Auction	The date and time of the Auction, if one is needed, which will be held by video conference.	1:00 p.m. prevailing Central Time, on June 18, 2024, if needed

Notice of Successful Bidder	As soon as reasonably practicable after the conclusion of the Auction, the Trustee will file on the docket, but not serve, a notice identifying the Successful Bidder (as defined in the Bidding Procedures) (the “Notice of Successful Bidder”), identifying the Successful Bidder and key terms of the agreement.	June 21, 2024
Assumption and Assignment Service Deadline	The deadline by which the Trustee shall serve the contract assumption notice informing each recipient of the timing and procedures relating to such assumption and assignment.	June 7, 2024
Cure Amounts Objection Deadline	The deadline by which objections, if any, to the proposed assumption and assignment or the proposed Cure Amounts (as defined in the Assumption & Assignment Procedures) must be received.	July 1, 2024
Sale Objection Deadline	The deadline by which objections, if any, to the Sale must be received.	July 1, 2024
Sale Hearing	The hearing before the Court to consider approval of the Successful Bid, pursuant to which the Trustee and the Successful Bidder consummate the Sale.	__:00 __.m. (Prevailing Central Time) on July __, 2024 (may be combined with hearing on a plan of liquidation)

11. Because the Bid Procedures are set forth in detail therein, they are not restated here. In general, the Bid Procedures establish, among other things:¹ (a) the requirements for participation in the Bidding Process, including the criteria for a bid to be designated as a Qualified Bid; (b) the process for the submission and evaluation of bids in connection with the Sale; (c) the requirements for participation in, and rules governing the conduct of, the Auction of the Property; (d) the process for designation of a Successful Bidder and a Backup Bidder; and (e) all related dates and deadlines.

¹ This summary is provided for the convenience of the Court and parties in interest. To the extent there is any conflict between this summary and the Bid Procedures, the Bid Procedures govern in all respects.

12. The Trustee also seeks approval of the Sale Notice, which in addition to the Bid Procedures Order and the Bid Procedures, will be served upon the following parties or their counsel, if known (collectively, the “Notice Parties”): (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of Texas; (b) Naissance Galleria, LLC; (c) the Debtor; (d) NBK; (e) any parties known or reasonably believed to have expressed an interest in the Property; (f) creditors, interest holders and parties to executory contracts or leases as identified in the Debtor’s Schedule found at ECF No. 70; and (g) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. After entry of the Bid Procedures Order, the Trustee also will give notice of the Sale in a local Houston, Texas publication of general interest.

13. The Trustee submits that the providing notice of the sale as outlined above reasonably provides all interested parties with timely and proper notice of the proposed sale of the Property, including: (a) the date, time, and place of the Auction (if one is held); (b) the Bid Procedures and the dates and deadlines related thereto; (c) the dates and deadlines related to the Auction; and (d) instructions for promptly obtaining a copy of the Stalking Horse Agreement and other pleadings.

ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES

14. The Trustee also seeks approval of the Assumption & Assignment Procedures to facilitate the fair and orderly assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases in connection with the Sale. Because the Assumption & Assumption Procedures are set forth in detail therein, they are not restated herein.² In general, the Assumption & Assignment Procedures (a) outline the process by which the Trustee will serve notice to all counterparties to executory contracts and unexpired leases (the “Assigned Contracts”) regarding the proposed assumption and assignment and related cure amounts, if any, informing such parties of their rights and the procedures to object thereto, and (b) establish objection and other relevant deadlines and the manner for resolving disputes relating to assumption and assignment of certain Assigned Contracts to the extent necessary.

² The proposed Assumption & Assignment Procedures relate to the proposed mechanism for providing notice of cure amounts to certain executory contract counterparties, entertaining objections, and resolving disputes, if any.

ARGUMENT

A. The Court’s Authority to Approve the Bid Procedures

15. The procedures used in selling estate assets are subject to the Trustee’s business judgment, which is entitled to substantial deference, as long as the Trustee articulates an adequate business justification. See, e.g., In re Cont’l Air Lines, Inc., 780 F.2d 1223, 1226 (5th Cir. 1986) (“[F]or a debtor-in-possession or trustee to satisfy its fiduciary duty to the debtor, creditors and equity holders, there must be some articulated business justification for using, selling, or leasing the property outside of the ordinary course of business.”). Bankruptcy Rule 6004(f)(1) provides that any such non-ordinary course sale “may be by private sale or public auction.” See In re Cypresswood Land Partners, I, 409 B.R. 396, 436 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2009) (“there is no prohibition against a private sale. . . [and] there is no requirement that the sale be by public auction”). Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). The Trustee has exercised sound business judgment in entering into the Stalking Horse Agreement, deciding on this process for the public auction sale of the Property, and committing to closing with the prevailing bidder on the terms set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement.

B. The Bid Procedures are Reasonably Designed to Maximize Value for the Property

16. The paramount goal in any proposed sale of property of the estate is to maximize the proceeds received by the estate. See, e.g., In re Bigler, LP, 443 B.R. 101, 115 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2010). In that regard, courts uniformly recognize that procedures intended to enhance competitive bidding are consistent with the goal of maximizing value and therefore are appropriate for bankruptcy transactions. See, e.g., In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 659 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (bid procedures “are important tools to encourage bidding and to maximize the value of the debtor’s assets”).

17. Here, the Bid Procedures are designed to attract active bidding from parties potentially interested in the Sale of the Property and to maximize its value. The Trustee developed the Bid Procedures to solicit offers and conduct a sale process in a controlled, fair, and open fashion that will encourage participation by financially capable bidders. If the Trustee receives competing bids, the Bid Procedures provide the Trustee an opportunity to schedule an Auction with respect to such bids and then select the highest or otherwise best bid. The Bid Procedures also provide the Trustee with the flexibility and opportunity, to assess and compare bids to ensure that the estate receives the best consideration for the Property.

18. Furthermore, to be clear, the Trustee will exercise his independent discretion in connection with the Sale and proposed Auction. The Trustee will determine whether a Potential Bidder is a Qualified Bidder. The Trustee will determine the Successful Bidder. The Trustee will decide any issues of discretion under the Bidding Procedures. And for so long as NBK is bidding on the Property, the Trustee will not consult with NBK with respect to any of the foregoing.

19. Accordingly, the Bid Procedures should be approved.

C. Entry Into the Stalking Horse Agreement Has a Sound Business Purpose and Should be Approved

20. The Trustee seeks approval and authority to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement without any break-up fee and expense reimbursement to NBK if NBK is not the Successful Bidder. The use of a stalking horse in a public auction process for the sale of estate assets is a customary practice in chapter 11 cases, as the use of a stalking horse bid is, in many circumstances, the best way to maximize value by “establish[ing] a framework for competitive bidding and facilitate[ing] a realization of that value.” Off. Comm. Of Unsecured Creditors v. Interforum Holding LLC, No. 11-CV-219, 2011 WL 2671254, at *1 (E.D. Wis. July 7, 2011). Moreover, entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement sends a strong signal to the market that the Trustee is serious about running a competitive sale process to generate the best result for the estate. Significantly, the absence of any breakup fee or expense reimbursement requirement, in the Trustee’s opinion, increases the likelihood of competitive bidding as other bidders will not have to account for any breakup fee or expense reimbursement when deciding their own bid for the Property.

21. Accordingly, the Court should approve and allow the Trustee to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement in order to preserve the value of the estate.

D. The Sale of the Property is Authorized by Section 363 as a Sound Exercise of the Trustee’s Business Judgement

22. Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a “trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). A sale of estate assets should be authorized pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code if a sound business purpose exists for the proposed transaction. See, e.g., In re Martin, 91 F.3d 389, 395 (3d. Cir. 1996) (“Under Section 363, the debtor in possession can sell property of the estate . . . if he has an ‘articulated business justification’ . . .”); see also In re Schipper, 933 F.2d 513, 515 (7th Cir. 1991) (same); In re Lionel Corp., 722 F.2d 1063, 1070 (2d Cir. 1983); In re Telesphere Commc’s, Inc., 179 B.R. 544, 552 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1999).

23. As long as the sale appears to enhance an estate, court approval of a trustee’s decision to sell should only be withheld if the trustee’s judgment is clearly erroneous, too speculative, or contrary to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. See GBL Holding Co., Inc. v. Blackburn/Travis/Cole, Ltd., 331 B.R. 251, 255 (N.D. Tex. 2005); In re Lajijani, 325 B.R. 282, 289 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 2005); In re WPRV-TV, Inc., 143 B.R. 315, 319 (D. P.R. 1991) (“The trustee has ample discretion to administer the estate, including authority to conduct public or private sales of estate property. Courts have much discretion on whether to approve proposed sales, but the trustee’s business judgment is subject to great judicial deference.”).

24. Here, sound business reasons support the proposed sale.

25. The monthly revenue being generated by the Property does not exceed expenses sufficiently to fund administrative expenses incurred while in chapter 11, necessary capital expenditures, and interest accruing on tax liens, and the estate lacks the resources to carry the Property or enter into new leases. The proposed Sale, however, provides an efficient way for the Trustee to shed this underwater asset (both from a leverage and cash-flow perspective) and provides a way for a plan to be confirmed.

26. Moreover, the Sale achieves these positive results not only through the Stalking Horse Bid but also through a process that is intended to maximize the value of the Property by exposing it to the market as part of a competitive, arms’ arms-length process. The successful bid after being subject to a “market check” in the form of the Auction, will constitute, in the Trustee’s business judgment, the highest or otherwise best offer for the Property and will provide a greater recovery for the estate than any other alternative. Also, because a sale of the Property may result in the assumption of certain of the Debtor's executory contracts and unexpired leases, it could result in payment in full for several creditors.

27. The Trustee's determination to sell the Property through an Auction process and subsequently to enter into a purchase agreement with the Successful Bidder will be a valid and sound exercise of his business judgment and should be sustained by the Court at the sale hearing. No evidence need be taken on this issue now, in connection with approving the Sale process and Bid Procedures. Any objections to the Stalking Horse Agreement can be raised at the Sale Hearing.

28. The Trustee is aware that 2425 WL, LLC has filed Adversary Proceeding No. 24-03043 seeking, among other things, the equitable subordination of NBK's claim behind the lien of 2425 WL, LLC. The process set out under the Bid Procedures would allow for adequate time for the resolution of this issue and 2425 WL, LLC or any other party to submit an alternative bid for the Property to be considered at the Sale Hearing. Unless and until NBK's claim or lien are equitably subordinated, however, NBK's lien has the priority over all liens other than those created by Chapter 32 of the Texas Tax Code.

E. The Sale Transaction Has Been Proposed in Good Faith Without Collusion, and the Successful Bidder Is a "Good-Faith Successful Bidder."

29. At the Sale Hearing, the Trustee will request that the Court find that the Successful Bidder is entitled to the benefits and protections provided by section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

30. Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code provides in relevant part:

[t]he reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under subsection (b) or (c) of this section of a sale or lease or property does not affect the validity of a sale or lease under such authorization to an entity that purchased or leased such property in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and such sale or lease were stayed pending appeal.

11 U.S.C. § 363(m).

31. Section 363(m) thus protects the purchaser of assets sold pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code from the risk that it will lose its interest in the purchased assets if the order allowing the sale is reversed on appeal, as long as such purchaser leased or purchased the assets in “good faith.” While the Bankruptcy Code does not define “good faith,” courts have held that a purchaser shows its good faith through the integrity of its conduct during the course of the sale proceedings, finding that where there is a lack of such integrity, a good faith finding may not be made. See, e.g., In re Abbotts Dairies of Pennsylvania, Inc., 788 F.2d 143, 147 (3d Cir. 1986) (quoting In re Rock Indus. Mach. Corp., 572 F.2d 1195, 1198 (7th Cir. 1978)) (“Typically, the misconduct that would destroy a [buyer’s] good faith status at a judicial sale involves fraud, collusion between the [proposed buyer] and other bidders or the trustee, or an attempt to take grossly unfair advantage of other bidders.”); In the Matter of Andy Frain Services, Inc., 798 F.2d 1113 (7th Cir. 1986) (same); In re Sasson Jeans, Inc., 90 B.R. 608, 610 (S.D.N.Y. 1988) (same).

32. The Trustee submits that the Stalking Horse Bidder or any Successful Bidder will be “good faith purchasers” within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder is a good-faith, arms’-length agreement entitled to the protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

33. As the Trustee will demonstrate at the Sale Hearing: (a) the consideration to be received from a Successful Bidder will be substantial, fair, and reasonable; (b) any sale agreement with a Successful Bidder will presumably be the culmination of a competitive Auction process in which all parties will be represented by counsel and all negotiations will be conducted on an arm’s-length, good-faith basis; (c) there will be no “fraud, collusion between the purchaser and other bidders or the trustee, or an attempt to take grossly unfair advantage of other bidders” or similar conduct that would cause or permit the Sale to be avoided under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (d) any bids determined to be Successful Bid will have been evaluated and approved by the Trustee as being in the best interests of the estate.

F. The Sale Should be Approved “Free and Clear” Under Section 363(f)

34. Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code permits a trustee to sell property free and clear of another party’s interest in the property if: (a) applicable nonbankruptcy law permits such a free and clear sale; (b) the holder of the interest consents; (c) the interest is a lien and the sale price of the property exceeds the value of all liens on the property; (d) the interest is the subject of a bona fide dispute; or (e) the holder of the interest could be compelled in a legal or equitable proceeding to accept a monetary satisfaction of its interest. See 11 U.S.C. § 363(f).

35. Section 363(f) is drafted in the disjunctive, meaning satisfaction of any of the requirements enumerated therein will suffice to warrant the sale of the Property free and clear of all encumbrances, except as to any interests that may be assumed liabilities under the applicable purchase agreement. See In re Kellstrom Indus., Inc., 282 B.R. 787, 793 (Bankr. D. Del. 2002) (“[I]f any of the five conditions are met, the debtor has the authority to conduct the sale free and clear of all liens.”); In re Elliot, 94 B.R. 343, 354 (E.D. Pa. 1988) (holding that a sale “free and clear” may be approved provided the requirements of at least one subsection are met).

36. The Trustee submits that any interest in the Property that will not be an assumed liability satisfies or will satisfy at least one of the five conditions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that any such interest will be adequately protected by either being paid in full at the time of closing, or by having it attach to the net proceeds of the Sale, subject to any claims and defenses the estate may possess with respect thereto.

37. By way of example, any interest in the Property senior to the secured interest held by NBK will be paid or otherwise satisfied in full from the sale proceeds or pursuant to a plan of reorganization and applicable non-bankruptcy law allows the Property to be sold free and clear of any interest junior to NBK in the Property.

G. Any Sale of the Property Pursuant to a Plan of Liquidation Is Proper and Will Be Free of Transfer Taxes.

38. A condition for the Sale of the Property pursuant to the Stalking Horse Agreement is that an order confirming a plan of liquidation in this chapter 11 case that implements or incorporates by reference the transaction provided for by the Staking Horse Agreement be a final order. Under such an arrangement, the Sale would be an integral and integrated part of the Plan, pursuant to section 1123(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.³

39. For any Sale that is part of a plan of liquidation, Bankruptcy Code section 1146(a) exempts its transfer from stamp taxes, transfer taxes, or similar taxes so long as the transfer is in conjunction with a Chapter 11 plan. See Florida Dep't of Revenue v. Piccadilly Cafeterias, Inc., 554 U.S. 33 (2008).

H. The Form and Manner of Notice Should Be Approved

40. Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a) requires the Trustee to provide creditors with 21 days' notice of a sale of property out-of-the ordinary course. Under Bankruptcy Rule 2002(c), such notice must include the time and place of any proposed public sale/auction and the deadline for filing any objections to the proposed sale.

³ Section 1123(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code allows for chapter 11 plans of liquidation to “provide for the sale of all or substantially all of the property of the estate, and the distribution of the proceeds of such sale among holders of claims or interests” While the Bidding Procedures provide the Trustee with the flexibility to go forward with a sale that is not part of a plan of liquidation, the Stalking Horse Agreement contemplates a sale incorporated by a plan.

41. Following entry of the Bid Procedures Order, the Trustee will serve the Sale Notice, the Bid Procedures Order, and the Bid Procedures (the “Sale Notice Package”). The Sale Notice Package, when served on the Notice Parties, constitutes good and adequate notice under Bankruptcy Rule 2002 of the proposed Sale, the Auction and the other relief sought in this Motion and to be sought at the final sale hearing.

42. Accordingly, the Trustee requests that the Court approve the form of the Sale Notice and manner of service of the Sale Notice Package.

I. The Assumption & Assignment Procedures Should Be Approved

43. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a trustee “subject to the court’s approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor.” 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). The standard governing approval of a trustee’s decision to assume or reject an executory contract is whether the trustee’s reasonable business judgment supports assumption or rejection. In re Mirant Corp., 378 F.3d 511, 524-25, n.5 (5th Cir. 2004). Under the business judgment test, a court should approve a trustee’s proposed assumption if such assumption will benefit the estate. In re Food City, Inc., 94 B.R. 91, 93-94 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 1988).

44. The Assumption & Assignment Procedures are reasonable under the circumstances and are necessary to notify parties to assumed contracts of the potential assumption and assignment of their contracts, the related proposed cure amounts, and the Successful Bidder’s adequate assurance of future performance. Whether the requirements for assumption and assignment of any executory contracts or unexpired leases to a Successful Bidder has been satisfied will be demonstrated at the Sale Hearing.

45. The Trustee will evaluate the financial wherewithal of potential bidders before designating any such party a Qualified Bidder or Successful Bidder, including as it relates to such Qualified Bidder's willingness and ability to perform under executory contracts and unexpired leases that it wants assumed and assigned. Indeed, the Bid Procedures provide that all bids must be accompanied by information providing adequate assurance of the bidder's future performance.

46. Accordingly, the Assumption & Assignment Procedures should be approved as reasonable and necessary measures to (a) adequately notify parties in interest and assume and (b) assign contracts and leases in a fair, efficient, and proper manner.

J. Relief Under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) is Appropriate

47. To maximize the value received for the Property, the Trustee seeks to close the Sale as soon as possible after the Sale Hearing. Accordingly, the Trustee requests that the Court waive the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d).

NOTICE

48. Notice of this Motion has been provided to the following parties and their counsel: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of Texas; (b) NBK; (c) Naissance Galleria, LLC; (c) the Debtor; (d) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002; and (f) all creditors and interest holders, and executory contract counterparties, identified in the Debtor's Schedules. The Trustee submits that no other or further notice is required.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter the Bid Procedures Order granting (i) the relief requested in the Motion and (iii) other relief as is just and proper.

Upon the motion of the Trustee for entry of an order pursuant to sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004 and 6006 for an Order (i) approving procedures for the sale of property free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances; (B) scheduling an auction; (C) approving form of purchase agreement and stalking horse bidder; (D) approving assumption and assignment procedures; (E) approving form of notice; and (F) granting related relief dated April [●], 2024 [ECF No. [●]] (the “Motion”);¹ and this Court having jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334; and this matter being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2); and venue of this Motion being proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and adequate notice of, and the opportunity for a hearing on, the Motion having been given; and it appearing that no other or further notice need be provided; and this Court having found that the relief requested in the Motion and provided for herein is in the best interests of the estate and its creditors, and other parties in interest; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon the record herein, and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS THAT:

A. Bid Procedures. The Trustee has articulated good and sufficient reasons for authorizing and approving the Bid Procedures, which are fair, reasonable, and appropriate under the circumstances and designed to maximize the recovery on the Property.

B. Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement. The Trustee has demonstrated and proven that entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement is in the best interests of the estate and its creditors and that performance under the Stalking Horse Agreement represents a prudent exercise of the Trustee's business judgment. The Bid Procedures and the Stalking Horse Agreement were negotiated at arm's length and in good faith by the Trustee and the Stalking Horse Bidder, without collusion. Furthermore, the Stalking Horse Agreement will serve as a minimum or floor bid on which bidders may rely. The Stalking Horse Bidder has provided a material benefit to the estate and its creditors by increasing the likelihood that, given the circumstances, the best possible price for the Property will be received. The Stalking Horse Agreement represents the highest or otherwise best offer that the estate has received to date to purchase the Property. The process for selection of the Stalking Horse Bidder was fair and appropriate under the circumstances and in the best interests of the estate. Accordingly, the Trustee's entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement is reasonable and appropriate.

C. Stalking Horse Bidder. The Stalking Horse Bidder is not an "insider" of the Debtor, as those terms are defined in section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, and no common identity of incorporators, directors, or controlling stakeholders exist between the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Debtor. The Stalking Horse Bidder and its counsel and advisors have acted in “good faith” in connection with the Stalking Horse Bidder’s negotiation of the Bid Procedures and entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement.

D. Sale Notice. The Sale Notice Package reasonably provides all interested parties with timely and proper notice of the proposed Sale, including: (i) the date, time, and place of the Auction (if one is held); (ii) the Bid Procedures and certain dates and deadlines related thereto; (iii) the objection deadline for the Sale and the date, time, and place of the Sale Hearing; (iv) reasonably specific identification of the asset for sale; (v) instructions for promptly obtaining a copy of the Stalking Horse Agreement; (vi) representations describing the Sale of the Property as being free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, with all such liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances attaching with the same validity and priority to the sale proceeds subject to customary exceptions for permitted liens; (vii) the commitment by the Stalking Horse Bidder to assume certain liabilities disclosed in the Stalking Horse Agreement; and (viii) notice of the proposed assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts (or to another Successful Bidder arising from the Auction, if any) and the right, procedures, and deadlines for objecting thereto, and no other or further notice of the Sale shall be required.

E. Auction. The Auction, if held, is necessary to determine whether any entity other than the Stalking Horse Bidder is willing to enter into a definitive agreement on terms and conditions more favorable than the Stalking Horse Agreement.

F. Assumption & Assignment Procedures. The Assumption & Assignment Procedures are reasonably calculated to provide counterparties to the Assigned Contracts with proper notice of the intended assumption and assignment of their executory contracts, any cure amounts herein), and the Assumption & Assignment Procedures (as defined herein).

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED to the extent set forth in this Order.
2. Bid Deadline. June 14, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time) is the deadline by which all Qualified Bids must be actually received by the Notice Parties specified in the Bid Procedures.
3. Auction. June 18, 2024, at 1:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time) is the date and time the Auction, if one is needed, will be held in accordance with the Bid Procedures. The Trustee will send written notice of the date, time, and place of the Auction to the Qualified Bidders no later than two (2) business days before such Auction.
4. Notice of Successful Bidder. Upon conclusion of the Auction, the Trustee shall file a Notice of Successful Bidder.
5. Sale Objection Deadline. Objections to the Sale, if any, must be made on or before July 1, 2024 (the "Sale Objection Deadline") and served on the following parties so as to be actually received by or before the Sale Objection Deadline: (i) the Chapter 11 Trustee, Christopher R. Murray, Jones Murray LLP, 602 Sawyer Street, Suite 400, Houston, TX 77007, email, chris@jmbllp.com; (ii) counsel to the Chapter 11 Trustee, R.J. Shannon and Kyung S. Lee, Shannon & Lee LLP, 2100 Travis Street, Suite 1525, Houston, TX 77002, email: klee@shannonleellp.com, rshannon@shannonleellp.com; (iii) counsel to NBK, Charles C. Conrad, Andrew M. Troop and Patrick E. Fitzmaurice, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, 609 Main Street Suite 2000, Houston, TX 77002, email, charles.conrad@pillsburylaw.com; patrick.fitzmaurice@pillsburylaw.com; andrew.troop@pillsburylaw.com; (iv) Office of the United States Trustee for Region 7, Houston Division, 515 Rusk Street, Suite 3516, Houston, Texas, 77002 (Attn. Debtor, Reese W. Baker, 950 Echo Lane, Suite 300, Houston, Texas 77024, email: Reese.Baker@bakerassociates.net.

6. Sale Hearing. July ___, 2024, at __:__.m. (prevailing Central Time), is the date and time for the hearing for the Court to consider the Successful Bid, if needed.

7. Sale Closing. Closing of the Sale shall occur promptly after Court approval of the Sale pursuant to the terms of any agreement or the Sale Order.

8. Free and Clear of Any and All Claims and Interests. Except as provided in any agreement with respect to the sale approved by the Court, upon entry of the applicable sale order, all of the estate's right, title and interest in and to the Property shall be sold free and clear of any pledges, liens, security interests, encumbrances, claims, charges, options and interests thereon to the maximum extent permitted by section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, with such interests to attach to the net proceeds of the sale with the same validity and priority as such interests applied against the Property purchased pursuant to these procedures.

9. No Other Bids for Acquired Assets. If the Stalking Horse Bidder's bid, as reflected in the Stalking Horse Agreement, is the only Qualified Bid with respect to the Property that is received by the Trustee by the Bid Deadline, no Auction shall be conducted for the Property and the Stalking Horse Bidder will be the Successful Bidder for the Acquired Assets. In such circumstances, the Trustee shall notify the Court and promptly seek approval of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

10. The Bid Procedures in the form attached to this Order as Exhibit 1 are APPROVED, and the Trustee is authorized to take any and all actions necessary and/or appropriate to implement the Bid Procedures.

11. The Stalking Horse Agreement in the form attached to this Order as Exhibit 2 is APPROVED, and the Trustee is authorized to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder, and the bid of the Stalking Horse Bidder contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement (the “Stalking Horse Bid”) shall be deemed a Qualified Bid.

12. The Assumption & Assignment Procedures in the form attached to this Order as Exhibit 3 are APPROVED, and the Trustee is authorized to take any and all actions necessary and/or appropriate to implement the Assumption & Assignment Procedures.

13. The Sale Notice in the form attached to this Order as Exhibit 4 is APPROVED.

14. Five (5) days after entry of this Order, the Trustee shall publish the Notice (or an abbreviated version thereof) in a local Houston publication of general interest as the Trustee determines will promote the marketing and sale of the Property. Nothing in this Order limits the Trustee’s ability to publish the Notice (or abbreviated version thereof) in any other publication.

15. The Trustee shall serve the Sale Notice, the Bid Procedures Order and the Bid Procedures upon the following parties and their counsel, if known: (a) NBK; (b) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of Texas; (c) Naissance Galleria, LLC; (c) the Debtor; (d) any parties known or reasonably believed to have expressed an interest in the Property; and (e) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002.

16. The Trustee shall serve the Assumption & Assignment Procedures on all creditors and interest holders, and executory contract counterparties, identified in the Debtor’s Schedules.

17. Notwithstanding the possible applicability of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9014, or any applicable provisions of the Local Rules or otherwise, the terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry, and no automatic stay of execution shall apply to this Order.

18. To the extent the provisions of any Exhibits to this Order are inconsistent with this Order, this Order shall control.

19. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation of the Bid Procedures and this Order.

Based upon the terms of the Qualified Bids received, the number of Qualified Bidders participating in the Auction, and such other information as the Trustee determines is relevant, the Trustee may conduct the Auction in the manner it determines will achieve the maximum value for the Property.

Prior to concluding the Auction, the Trustee shall: (i) review each Qualified Bid on the basis of financial and contractual terms and the factors relevant to the sale process, including those factors affecting the speed and certainty of consummating the Sale; and (ii) identify and announce to all attending the Auction, the highest or otherwise best offer for the Property and any second highest offer (the “Successful Bid”) and the basis for such determination.

The Trustee and the Successful Bidder shall be required to execute an asset purchase agreement for the Successful Bid at the conclusion of the Auction or immediately thereafter, and the Trustee shall take all actions required under the Bankruptcy Code and Federal and Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. - i. Minimum Overbids Bids. Any overbid, after and above the Baseline Bid shall be made in increments valued at not less than $250,000 (or other amount as shall be announced at the Auction by the Trustee) in cash or in cash equivalents, or other forms of consideration acceptable to the Trustee.
- j. Acceptance and Approval of Successful Bid. The Trustee shall accept Qualified Bids as described in Section (f) and the Qualified Bidder that submits the Successful Bid will be deemed a Successful Bidder. The Successful Bid by the Successful Bidder shall be subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing.
- k. Sale Hearing. After the conclusion of the Auction, the Bankruptcy Court shall conduct a hearing (the “Sale Hearing”) in which the Trustee will seek entry of an order (the “Sale Order”), among other things: (i) authorizing and approving the Sale to the Successful Bidder pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the asset purchase agreement submitted by the Successful Bidder; (iii) authorizing the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts as designated by the Successful Bidder; and (iv) authorizing the consummation of the Sale to the Successful Bidder through a chapter 11 plan of liquidation to be filed by NBK or as otherwise ordered by the Court. The Sale Hearing may be adjourned or rescheduled without notice other than by an announcement of the adjourned date in court. Following the entry of the Sale Order, if the Successful Bidder fails to consummate the Sale because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder, the Back-Up Bidder, as disclosed at the Sale Hearing, shall be deemed to be the Successful Bid and the Trustee shall be authorized to effectuate such sale without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.
- l. Return of Good Faith Deposit. The Good Faith Deposit of the Successful Bidder will, upon consummation of the Successful Bid, become property of the estate and be credited towards the Purchase Price. If the Successful Bidder (or Back-Up Bidder, if applicable) fails to consummate the Successful Bid (or Back-Up Bid, if applicable), then the Good Faith Deposit of such Successful Bidder (or Back-Up Bidder, if applicable) will be irrevocably forfeited to the estate and may be retained by the estate as liquidated damages, in addition to any and all rights, remedies, or causes of action that may be available to the estate.

- m. Modifications. The Trustee may: (i) upon receipt of a Bid prior to the Bid Deadline that is not a Qualified Bid, allow the Potential Bidder with the opportunity to remedy any deficiencies prior to the Auction; (iii) reject at any time before announcing the Successful Bid at the Auction, any bid that is: (x) inadequate or insufficient; or (y) not in conformity with the Bankruptcy Code or the Bid Procedures.
- n. Reservation of Rights. In addition to the rights set forth above, the Trustee may modify these Bid Procedures or impose, at or prior to the Auction, additional terms and conditions on the proposed Sale if, in his reasonable judgment, such modifications would be in the best interests of the estate and promote an open and fair sale process.

Schedule 1

Form of Confidentiality Agreement

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

This confidentiality agreement (“Agreement”) dated as of [DATE], 2024 (the “Effective Date”) by and between Christopher R. Murray in his capacity as the Chapter 11 Trustee of Galleria 2424 Owner LLC (“Discloser”) and [RECIPIENT] (“Recipient”).

WHEREAS, on December 5, 2023, Galleria 2425 Owner LLC (the “Debtor”) filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and is a debtor in In re Galleria 2425 Owner LLC, Case No. 23-34815 (JPN) (the “Chapter 11 Case”), pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Court”).

WHEREAS, Recipient is interested in entering into a possible transaction (the “Possible Transaction”) for the purchase of the Property of Discloser.

WHEREAS, Discloser intends to furnish Recipient and its Representatives (defined below) with certain Confidential Information (defined below) to facilitate Recipient’s due diligence in connection with the Possible Transaction.

WHEREAS, as a condition to the delivery of the Confidential Information, Discloser desires that Recipient and its Representatives maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and use the same only for the purposes contemplated by this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration for and as a condition to Discloser’s furnishing Confidential Information, the parties agree as follows:

A. Confidential Information

As used in this Agreement, the term “Confidential Information” means all information regarding the Discloser or its assets or businesses that is furnished to the Recipient, directly or indirectly by the Discloser or its members, partners, directors, officers, employees, agents, financing sources, and advisors (including attorneys, accountants, consultants, bankers, and financial advisors) (“Representatives”) regardless of whether specifically identified as “confidential” and regardless of whatever form or medium such information may take during or after its communication and shall include, but not be limited to, information regarding the Discloser’s financial data, operations, business records, programs, products, methods, techniques, processes, patterns, plans, drawings, specifications, devices, prototypes, samples, demonstrations, intellectual property, patents, patent applications and inventions not yet the subject of an issued patent or published patent application, scientific and technical information, engineering data, laboratory research data, business policies, business practices, projections, financial and economic models, economic data, personally identifiable information about the individuals in the organization, applicants for positions within the organization, information of persons whom Discloser may someday like to have as part of its organization, competitive intelligence data, information about those persons and entities with whom the Discloser interacts (including employees, customers, potential customers, investors, joint venturers, vendors, and suppliers), potential transactions, and all materials containing or reflecting such information.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, “Confidential Information” shall not include information (a) in the public domain at or subsequent to the time such portion was communicated to the Recipient by the Discloser (other than as a result of violation of this Agreement), (b) in the Recipient’s possession and to the Recipient’s knowledge free of any obligation of confidence at or subsequent to the time such portion was communicated to the Recipient by the Discloser, or (c) independently developed or acquired by the Recipient or any of its Representatives without any violation of this Agreement.

To the extent that any Confidential Information may include materials subject to attorney-client privilege, the Discloser is not waiving and will not be deemed to have waived or diminished its attorney work-product protections, attorney-client privileges, or similar protections and privileges as a result of disclosing any Confidential Information (including Confidential Information related to pending or threatened litigation) to the Recipient, regardless of whether the Discloser has asserted or is or may be entitled to assert such privileges and protections. The parties (a) share a common legal and commercial interest in all such Confidential Information that is subject to such privileges and protections; (b) are or may become joint defendants in proceedings to which such Confidential Information covered by such protections and privileges relates; and (c) intend that such privileges and protections remain intact should either party become subject to any actual or threatened proceeding to which such Confidential Information covered by such protections and privileges relates. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Recipient shall not claim or contend, in proceedings involving either party, that the Discloser waived its attorney work-product protections, attorney-client privileges, or similar protections and privileges with respect to any information, documents, or other material not disclosed to the Recipient due to the Discloser disclosing Confidential Information (including Confidential Information related to pending or threatened litigation) to the Recipient.

B. Nondisclosure and Non-Use Obligation

Recipient agrees to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and shall not, directly or indirectly, during the term of this Agreement: (a) transfer or disclose orally, in writing, or electronically any Confidential Information to any third party, except for its internal use or use by its Representatives in connection with making a bid for a Possible Transaction; or (b) use any Confidential Information for any purpose other than for the purpose of evaluating the interests of Recipient in making a bid for a Possible Transaction.

C. Disclosure to Representatives

It is understood that the Recipient may disclose Confidential Information to only those of Recipient’s Representatives who (a) require such material for the purpose of evaluating the Possible Transaction and (b) are informed by Recipient of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information and the obligations of this Agreement and agrees to abide by such terms. Recipient further agrees that Recipient and Recipient’s Representatives will not use any of the Confidential Information for any reason or purpose other than to evaluate and to negotiate the Possible Transaction. Recipient also agrees to be responsible for enforcing this Agreement as to Recipient’s Representatives and to take such action, legal or otherwise, to the extent necessary to cause them to comply with this Agreement and thereby prevent any disclosure of the Confidential

Information by any of the Recipient's Representatives (including all actions that the Recipient would take to protect its own trade secrets and confidential information) except as permitted by this Agreement.

D. Legal Proceedings

In the event that Recipient or any of its Representatives is required by any law, regulation, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoenas, civil investigative demand, or similar process to disclose any Confidential Information, to the extent reasonably practicable, such party will provide Discloser with prompt written notice of such request or requirement so that Discloser may seek an appropriate protective order or take other appropriate action (and if Discloser seeks such an order or takes such action, such party will provide such cooperation as Discloser shall reasonably request). If Recipient or any of its Representatives are nonetheless required to disclose Confidential Information, such party may disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that is legally required to be disclosed and will exercise reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded such Confidential Information.

E. Return or Destruction of Confidential Information

Recipient agrees that Discloser retains all right, title and interest in the Confidential Information and that at Discloser's option it shall either return to Discloser or destroy all Confidential Information, and all copies thereof, within ten (10) calendar days of the written request therefor by Discloser; provided, however, that Recipient may retain any copies, extracts, or other reproductions of such Confidential Information in whole or in part (a) to the extent necessary to comply with legal or regulatory recordkeeping requirements of general application, or (b) in accordance with customary recordkeeping policies of Recipient (including any internal policy or system relating to the archiving or backup storage of electronic data).

F. No Obligation to Negotiate or Enter a Transaction

Discloser reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reject any and all proposals made by Recipient or Recipient's Representatives with regard to a Possible Transaction and to terminate discussions and negotiations with Recipient and Recipient's Representatives at any time. Neither Recipient nor Discloser shall have rights or obligations of any kind whatsoever with respect to a Possible Transaction by virtue of this Agreement other than for the matters specifically agreed to herein. Without limiting the preceding sentences, nothing in this Agreement requires either Recipient or Discloser to enter into a Possible Transaction or to negotiate such transaction for any specified period of time.

G. Termination

The obligations set forth in this Agreement shall survive for a period of time from the Effective Date to a date that is the earlier of (a) the completion of the Possible Transaction between Disclosure and Recipient, and (b) six months from the Effective Date.

H. No Representations or Warranties

Discloser retains the right to determine, in its sole discretion, what information, properties, and personnel it wishes to make available to Recipient, and neither Discloser nor its Representatives make any representation or warranty (express or implied) concerning the completeness or accuracy of the Confidential Information, except pursuant to representations and warranties that may be made in a definitive agreement for a Possible Transaction, if any, between the parties. Recipient agrees that it is not entitled to rely on the completeness or accuracy of the Confidential Information and that it will be entitled to rely solely on such representations and warranties as may be included in any definitive agreement with respect to a Possible Transaction, subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be contained therein.

I. Remedies

Recipient acknowledges and agrees that Discloser may suffer irreparable injury not compensable by money damages in the event of breach of the provisions of this Agreement and therefore may not have an adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Discloser shall be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent or curtail any such breach, threatened or actual, without necessity of posting a bond. The foregoing shall be in addition and without prejudice to such other rights as Discloser may have at law or in equity.

J. Miscellaneous

Modification. This Agreement may not be amended or modified except by an instrument in writing signed by or on behalf of the parties hereto.

Waiver. Neither the failure nor any delay by any party in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this letter agreement will operate as a waiver of such right, power, or privilege, and no single or partial exercise of any such right, power, or privilege will preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power, or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege.

Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect. If any of the covenants or provisions of this Agreement are determined to be unenforceable by reason of its extent, duration, scope, or otherwise, then the parties contemplate that the court making such determination shall reduce such extent, duration, scope or other provision and enforce them in their reduced form for all purposes contemplated by this Agreement.

Construction. The headings of sections in this Agreement are provided for convenience only and will not affect its construction or interpretation. All words used in this Agreement will be construed to be of such gender or number as the circumstances require. Unless otherwise expressly provided, the word “including” does not limit the preceding words or terms. The parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Execution. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original copy of this Agreement, and all of which, when taken together, shall be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement. The exchange of copies of this Agreement and of signature pages by facsimile transmission shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Agreement as to the parties and may be used in lieu of the original Agreement for all purposes. Signatures of the parties transmitted by facsimile shall be deemed to be their original signatures for any purpose whatsoever.

Jurisdiction. Without limiting any Party's right to appeal any order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall retain sole jurisdiction over any legal action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement, and each of the Parties consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court (and of the appropriate appellate courts) in any such action or proceeding and waives any objection to venue laid therein. If the Chapter 11 Case has been fully and finally dismissed and/or the Bankruptcy Court declines jurisdiction, the Parties agree to and hereby unconditionally and irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State of Texas in the County of Harris, or in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, and each of the Parties consents to the jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts) in any such action or proceeding and waives any objection to venue laid therein.

Governing Law. This letter agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of Texas without regard to conflicts-of-laws principles.

NOTICE OF ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES

Below are the assumption and assignment procedures (the “Assumption & Assignment Procedures”) contemplated in the Trustee’s motion for, among other things, entry of an order (a) authorizing the entry into an asset purchase agreement (the “Stalking Horse Agreement”), (b) authorizing and approving the bidding procedures (the “Bid Procedures”) in connection with the proposed auction (the “Auction”) for the Sale of the Property to a Successful Bidder,¹ (c) scheduling dates and deadlines in connection with approval of the Sale, and (d) approving procedures for the assumption and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases in connection with the Sale.

- a. On or before June 7, 2024, the Trustee shall file a schedule of cure obligations (the “Contract & Cure Schedule”) listing all of the Debtor’s leases and executory contracts that may be assumed and assigned (the “Assigned Contracts”) and the amount, if any, that the Trustee contends is the amount needed to cure any defaults with respect to such Assigned Contracts (the “Cure Amounts”).
- b. Upon filing, a copy of the Contract & Cure Schedule and these Assumption & Assignment Procedures will be served on each of the counterparties to the Assigned Contracts listed on the Contract & Cure Schedule.
- c. The Trustee shall amend the Contract & Cure Schedule promptly after the completion of the Auction to update the information contained therein with respect to the Successful Bid, including but not limited to adding additional leases and executory contracts (which shall then be deemed Assigned Contracts) and corresponding cure amounts (which shall be deemed Cure Amounts) and shall serve an amended Contract & Cure Schedule on each of the counterparties to the Assigned Contracts listed thereon.
- d. The Successful Bidder approved by the Bankruptcy Court as submitting the highest or otherwise best bid for purchase of the Property (the “Approved Purchaser”), at any time prior to closing on the sale of the Property, may identify executory contracts and leases to be (a) added to the Contract and Cure Schedule

¹ Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Bid Procedures.

(which contracts shall then be deemed Assigned Contracts) and the corresponding cure amounts (which shall be deemed Cure Amounts) and (b) deleted from the list of Assigned Contracts (which shall then cease to be Assigned Contracts). The Trustee shall give notice (the “Supplemental Notice”) to counterparties to executory contracts and leases added to or deleted from the Contract and Cure Schedule.

- e. Any objections (“Assignment Objections”) to the assumption and assignment of any Assigned Contract, including, but not limited to, objections relating to adequate assurance of future performance or to the cure amount set forth in the Contract & Cure Schedule must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served upon the Notice Party on or before July 1, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time) (the “Assignment Objection Deadline”).
- f. Any counterparty failing to file an Assignment Objection by the Assignment Objection Deadline shall be forever barred from (i) objecting to the Cure Amount set forth on the Contract & Cure Schedule with respect to its Assigned Contract; (ii) seeking additional amounts arising under its Assigned Contract prior to the Closing from the Successful Bidder; and (iii) objecting to the assumption and assignment of its Assigned Contract to the Successful Bidder.
- g. Any Assignment Objections required to be filed prior to the date of the Sale Hearing and not consensually resolved prior to the Sale Hearing shall be heard at the Sale Hearing with any related Cure Amounts or adequate assurance of future performance being fixed by the Bankruptcy Court. All other objections to the proposed assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts will be heard at the Sale Hearing; provided, however, all Assignment Objections for which the Assignment Objection Deadline is after the date of the Sale Hearing and which objection is not filed prior to the Sale Hearing, shall be heard on a date to be determined by the Trustee and the Approved Purchaser, subject to the availability of the Bankruptcy Court.
- h. Except as may otherwise be agreed to by all parties to an Assigned Contract, on or before the Closing, the cure of any defaults under Assigned Contracts necessary to permit assumption and assignment thereof shall be by (i) payment of the undisputed Cure Amount, and/or (ii) establishment of a reserve with respect to any disputed Cure Amount. The party responsible for paying Cure Amounts shall be as set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement or other agreement between the Successful Bidder and the Seller.
